Ozark Foothills Literacy Project to Hold Tutor Training Workshop

The Literacy Project, which serves Fulton, Sharp, Izard and Independence Counties, teaches adults who are learning to read and adults who are learning English. The Literacy Project relies on trained volunteers to provide one-on-one tutoring for its adult students. There are approximately 30 students currently waiting for tutors in the area.

The workshop will be on Saturday, November 18th, 2017 from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Donuts and coffee will be served in the Literacy Project's office, 156 S. 3rd. St., Batesville, AR. To register or for more information, please call 870-793-5912 or email morgan@oflp.org.

The Literacy Project is a United Way member agency and part of the Adult Learning Alliance network of adult literacy organizations. Office space is provided by Citizen's Bank. For more information about the Literacy Project, please call 870-793-5912 or visit www.oflp.org. If your church, organization, or civic group would like to host a workshop, please contact OFLP to set up a date.
