Independence Library Introduces Multicultural Programs

Contact: Vanessa Adams, Director, Independence Co. Library, (870) 793-8814

(BATESVILLE, AR) – The Independence County Library, located at 267 East Main Street in Batesville, will begin a series of multicultural programs beginning with a Hanukkah Traditions Presentation on Friday, December 7, at 3:00. Rachel Townsend will give a hands-on presentation including food samples, crafts, and a game. If you are interested in learning about other cultures and their traditions, plan to attend the program which will be held in the library's Public Meeting Room. There will be more presentations in the series which will be announced as they are scheduled. For more information, contact Kristy at the library, 870-793-8814 or email kristy@indcolibm.com.
